Riomaggiore - (1hour and 30 minutes from Livorno - 40 minutes from La Spezia)

The Cinque Terre is in the Italian Region of Liguria, just west of the city of La Spezia. It is comprised of The Cinque Terre, "The Five Lands" or five villages: Monterosso a Mare, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola, and Riomaggiore.▫

There are 3 ways to discover Cinqueterre \(Our suggestions here\):

Option 1 (By Local Ferry from Portovenere or Riomaggiore):

Weather permitting (April-October) from the boat, there is without doubt the best view of the Villages.

- Stop in Portovenere;
- Take the Ferry;
- Stop in Riomaggiore;
- You will reach Manarola passing "la Via dell'Amore"; (Right now, It's closed due to a landslide of 2 years ago);
- Stop in Vernazza and Monterosso. At the villages you can enjoy wine tastings of the famous dessert wine "Sciacchetrà"... a typical DOC wine, from the Cinque Terre area.
- I will be waiting in Monterosso.

After the meeting in Monterosso, we will drive to Pisa.▫

Stop in Pisa - (1 hour and 30 minutes from Monterosso)▫

Pisa, is a charming city in Tuscany, known throughout the world for its famous Leaning Tower (Torre Pendente) in the Field of Miracles, we can find the Baptistry (Battistero) - the largest of its kind in Italy and Cemetery (Camposanto). This area of Pisa is known as the Campo dei Miracoli.

▫Finally , we will drive back to the Ship.

Option 2 We will drive by Van from Riomaggiore to Vernazza

- Stop in Riomaggiore (Sightseeing of Riomaggiore)
- Stop in Manarola (If "La Via dell'Amore will be opened, you will walk from Riomaggiore to Manarola) Sightseeing of Manarola;
- Stop in Corniglia (Here you can enjoy a Lunch at typical Trattoria or tasting of the famous Sciacchetrà)
- Stop in Vernazza; Sightseeing of Vernazza
- Stop in Monterosso; (From Vernazza you will get Monterosso by train because the panoramic road is still closed due to a 2011 flood).

I will be waiting in Monterosso.
