Chauffeur Service

After the meeting at the lobby of your hotel in Florence, we will drive to Montalcino, famous in the world for its Brunello di Montalcino Wine.

The first stop will be on the town of Montalcino where you might admire the famous fortress .

Here you will walk along the narrow street to discover the beauty of this Tuscan city.

At 11 a.m. we will drive to the winery where you will enjoy a wine tasting the visiting of the winery. ( about 1 hour and 30 minutes)..

At the lunch time, we will drive to Sant'Angelo in Colle... the tiny village on the top of the hill..

Here you will be free to have lunch at the typical Trattoria.

After the lunch, we will drive to Sant' Antimo, the Abbey of Sant'Antimo, is a former Benedictine monastery in the comune of Montalcino, Tuscany, central Italy. It is approximately 10 km from Montalcino about 9 km from the Via Francigena, the pilgrim route to Rome. Disused for many years, the abbey has since 1992 been in use by a small community of Premonstratensian Canons Regular. A tributary of the river Orcia, the Starcia, runs near the abbey.

Here you might assist the Gregorian Chants!

Finally we will drive back to Florence.
